

Hope Rises in Haiti

Because of past generosity, MTW was able to purchase food for 70 Haitian families after Hurricane Melissa destroyed their farm lands in October, 2025.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me..." — Matthew 25:35-36a

Mission to the World's Compassion Fund offers immediate aid when our missionary fields experience crisis or disaster.

For example, when Hurricane Melissa's destruction magnified the ongoing humanitarian crisis in Haiti, MTW missionaries were able to respond quickly. A contact in the south picked up purchased bags of rice and beans and gave them to 70 families in the most affected area.

Earlier in 2025, the Compassion Fund also enabled 11 churches throughout Haiti to provide food and share the gospel to nearly 500 families facing famine.

"The people here thank you very much, both the community and the committee, my dear friends. We are deeply grateful for what you sent to help us. We wish that God may bless you even more."
